WAS BRIEF AND SWEET

Spain's Acceptance of Uncle Sam's Ultimatum.

SHE YIELDED WITH DIGNITY

Commission at Work on Articles Which Embody the Cession of the Philippines and the Relinquishment of Cuba.

Paris, Nov. 29.—When Spain accepted the United States' offer of $20,000,000 at the point session of the peace commissions, she consented without condition to relinquish Cuba and to cede Porto Rico, Guam and the Philippine Islands.

The document presenting this acceptance contained only 300 words. It opened with a reference to the final terms of the United States and said that the Spanish commissioners, after having taken cognizance of the terms proposed by the Americans, replied that their government had tried to give as equitable an answer as possible, but that they were not prepared to commit their government to the acceptance of the principles embodied in the American argument. Spain rejects these principles, the note continues, "as she always has rejected them."

However, the note adds, in her desire for peace she has gone so far as to propose certain compromises, which the Americans have always rejected. She has also attempted, it is further asserted, to have submitted to arbitration some of the material particulars upon which the two governments differed. These proposals for arbitration, it is added, the Americans had equally rejected.

At the conclusion of the translation the commissioners empowered Senor Ojeda, secretary of the Spanish commission, and Secretary Moore of the American commission to draw up articles which are to embody the relinquishment of Cuba by Spain and the cession of Porto Rico and the Philippines. These articles which may be considered as constituting the conditions of peace, will be ready for submission on Wednesday.

AN O'WANT

Paris, Nov. 29.—The leading article in The Temps, a column long, is devoted to a severe arraignment of the American attitude toward Spain, in which America is made to appear as a merciless conqueror imposing draconian conditions on a helpless foe and "exciting the signature of a treaty at the point of a bayonet." It adds: "The Spanish commissioners should, in submitting, protest to the civilized world against the spoliation of the weak by the strong."

MANY MINOR MATTERS

To Be Arranged Before the Peace Treaty Can Be Signed.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The officials of the state department without hesitation accepted as accurate the press bulletin from Paris announcing that the Spanish commissioners had accepted the American terms.

Much remains to be done in execution of the last instructions of the state department before the peace treaty itself can be completed and made ready for signature.

The work may be hurried materially, however, should the state department decide to permit the treatment of the remaining questions to be settled in separate conventions. The instructions to the American commissioners sent last week were to arrange for a renewal of the denounced trade treaties with Spain, for the acquisition of Ulan, for obtaining concessions for cable connections in other quarters and for the procurement of religious toleration in the Carolines.

These things are not likely to be easily disposed of, so it may be that the American commissioners will feel that they have complied with the spirit of their instructions if they succeed in including in the peace treaty a provision binding the Spanish government to negotiate hereafter on those subjects on lines that may be very broadly defined in the peace treaty.

In this case two or three more sessions of the peace commission should suffice to complete the work of that body. Otherwise, it is doubtful whether the work can be completed before Christmas.

A call at the state department of the German charge d'affaires, Count Von Sternberg, gave rise to a rumor that he had come to make representations to the department respecting certain rights claimed by Germany in the Sulu Islands. Whether this is true or not could not be ascertained. The department, however, has not failed to take notice of certain indirect and suspicious attempts to alienate the Sulu Islands from the rest of the Philippines, and has been forehanding in the matter.

It was recognized that attempts might be expected to be made by nations that were not party to the war to secure advantages to which they had not the slightest equitable claim. Japan was a notable sufferer from this sort of treatment.

Accordingly, when the administration decided to acquire the Philippines the American commissioners were specially charged to define the limits of the group, so as to leave no room for misconception on this point, nor for the setting up of claims to islands whose inclusion in the groups might be regarded as doubtful. To reduce the American claim to the clearest possible outline resort was had to the definitions of the boundaries of the Philippine group by geographical lines. There was reason for this, for at a very early stage in the war, Spain probably with a foreboding of what the outcome was to be, sought to separate the important Visayas group from the remainder of the Philippines by a decree, and information was quickly conveyed to the state department to the effect that a certain European power was engaged in an effort to obtain, through an agreement with Spain, the important island of Palawan, lying to the southwest of the Philippine group, and commanding an important position in the trade between China and Australia.

Mr. Stead's Views.

Paris, Nov. 29.—As to the general sentiment, Mr. William T. Stead, who has just returned here from a tour of France, Belgium, Germany, Russia, Austria, Turkey and Italy, and who has seen the highest politicians in each country, and in some cases their rulers, said: "The immense majority of Europeans are, of course, absolutely ignorant of what has happened. Intent upon their daily toil, they neither know nor care what occurs in the other hemisphere. But Europeans who read the news papers are able to form what may be called 'public opinion' in the Old World. They are practically unanimous on the matter. Outside of England I have not met a single non-American who was not opposed to the expansion of America. Nor through my whole tour of Europe have I met Europeans who did not receive the protestations of the genuine sincerity with which the Americans entered upon the war with more or less mock incredulity." Mr. Stead reports that the bitterest hostility of all was found at the Vatican.

Germany All Right.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Baron Speck von Sternberg, charge d'affaires of Germany, called at the state department and had a conference with Secretary Hay on current topics, particularly those growing out of the late war, in the course of which Baron Speck took occasion to express the most friendly sentiments on the part of Germany concerning the present status of affairs. The call was chiefly significant as an evidence that German officials desire to counteract the reports that Germany is about to assume an attitude of protest to lay claim to the Sulu archipelago.

Sick Kentucky Soldiers.

Newport News, Nov. 29.—The hospital ship Relief, which arrived at Hampton Roads from Ponce, has landed at Old Point a large number of sick volunteer and regular soldiers, among them the following of the First Kentucky: Privates Albert N. Bronson, John Vincent, Joseph Mocklage, Charles Johnson, Joseph McCartney, John B. Meyer, Joseph C. Waitney, Hayes Brumwell, George B. Sellers, Coleman R. Lee, William Trusty, Edward A. Parker, Harry Wilkerson, Charles Cello, Hiram S. Lewis, Harry W. Devson, Edward M. Dotson, George M. Ham, George P. Herdt, David P. Cook, George J. Schultheis. Corporals Henry G. Waddle, Charles P. Clegg, William O. Owens, Captain Volta G. Trimble, First Lieutenant William A. Campbell, Second Lieutenant William H. Henry, Sergeants Charles F. Bowers, Perry Collyer.

Garcia's Mission.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 29.—General Maso, the former president of the Cuban insurgent government, arrived here on a visit to his family. The members of the Cuban colony have tendered him a public reception. In an interview he confirmed the report that one of the chief objects of the mission of General Garcia and Messrs. Capote, Sangulilly and Lanuza to Washington is to endeavor to secure a grant or a loan of money sufficient to pay off the insurgent army, which is about to be disbanded.

Lawyers to Return.

Havana Nov. 29.—Messrs. Conant and Garrison, the legal advisers of the evacuation commission, will return to the United States on Wednesday by way of Tampa. Their colleague, Mr. Gould, will remain in Cuba in charge of the work of distributing relief to the Cubans.

Furniture Store Burned.

Kansas City, Nov. 29.—Fire in the big furniture establishment of Robert Keith & Company caused a loss on stock roughly estimated at $150,000, and on building of $40,000. Both are said to be amply covered by insurance.

HE HAS A LEVEL HEAD.

Admiral Cervera Predicted Dire Defeat For Spain.

VIGOROUSLY OPPOSED WAR.

Extracts From Letters Written by Him to the Stiff-Necked Spanish Ministers Before the Beginning of Hostilities.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The navy department has published the "views of Admiral Cervera regarding the Spanish navy in the late war."

The letters are dated from before the war up to May 5. They were written by Cervera in protest against Spain rushing into war in the face of certain defeat, due to the naval strength of the United States and the unpreparedness of the Spanish navy. Cervera wrote as follows:

"I ask myself if it is right for me to keep silent and thereby make myself an accomplice in adventures which will surely cause the total ruin of Spain. And for what purpose—to defend an island which was ours, but belongs to us no more, because even if we should not lose it by right in the war, we have lost it in fact, and with it all wealth and an enormous number of young men, victims of the climate and bullets, in the defense of what is now no more than a romantic ideal. Furthermore, I believe that this opinion of mine should be known to the queen and by the whole council of ministers. I have deemed it my duty to express my opinions to the proper authorities clearly and without beating about the bush. Now let orders be given to me; I will carry them out with energy and decision; I am ready for the worst."

Cervera adds that Spain had neglected her navy, and it was imprudent for her to attempt war against a superior naval power. And then he predicts that a conflict would be disastrous to Spain. He says that the eight principal vessels of the Havana station are worn out and that taking things as they are the Spanish naval force, compared with that of the United States, is in the proportion of one to three. In such conditions a campaign, he writes, would be disastrous even if not an offensive one.

The admiral points to the futility of attempting to blockade the United States ports and asks how the Spanish navy would repair even should they win a great victory without resources. He says: "It would be foolish to deny that what we may reasonably expect is defeat, which may be glorious, but all the same, defeat which would cause us to lose the island in the worst possible manner. Only in case we could count on some powerful ally could we aspire to obtain a satisfactory result."

The admiral refers to the Spanish Pacific force as not able to afford even a shadow of resistance to the American naval force. Further on he speaks of the war as at last in sight and laments the incomplete state of the Spanish vessels. But after all, he says that he is glad the end is coming and is prepared to do his duty. He speaks of the surprise and astonishment experienced by all of the officers of his squadron on receiving orders from Spain to sail from Cape Verde for Cuba, inasmuch as they had united in pointing out the condition of the ships. Says the admiral: "With an easy conscience I go to the sacrifice, but I cannot understand that decision of the navy general officers against my opinions."

JUDGE DELLENBAUGH

Requests the Resopening of the Hearing in Burke Case.

Cleveland, Nov. 29.—Judge F. E. Dellenbaugh filed a motion with the Bar association trial committee asking that the hearing in the Burke case be reopened in order that the deposition of George R. Hill, which has just been secured, may be placed in evidence. Hill was engaged for some time in doing detective work in the Manning alienation of affections case. He was not produced as a witness in the trial, and his name did not come up in the evidence. Hill, in his affidavit, makes certain statements contradictory to those of Senator Burke in regard to the alienation case.

The Fisheries Snarl.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 29.—The American members of the joint high commission for the settlement of disputes between the United States and Canada desire, it is reported here, to arrange a fisheries treaty with Newfoundland, independent of Canada, upon the basis of the Bond-Blaine convention. Canada strongly objects to this proposal, and the fisheries difficulty bids fair to neutralize the efforts of the commission.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Condition of the treasury: Available cash balance $296,703,423; gold reserve, $240,705,809.

THE QUAY CASES.

Demurrers Filed to Four of the Five Indictments.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The case of Senator Quay and others, charged with conspiracy in the misuse of the money of the state on deposit in the People's bank, came up in the court of quarter sessions, Judge Finletter presiding.

The defendants were not in court, their interests being looked after by Attorneys Rufus E. Shapley and A. S. L. Shields. Attorney Shapley filed demurrers to four of the five indictments found against the defendants by the grand jury, and also filed a motion to quash the fifth indictment.

Argument on these demurrers was proceeded with by Mr. Shapley. In a general way the objections to the indictments were based on contentions of insufficient specifications, complete failure to charge any unlawful act and an absence of allegation that the defendants unlawfully obtained any money, either from the bank or from any other source.

If the defendants did, as the indictments charge, purchase stocks and bonds through Casbier Hopkins, as agent, Mr. Shapley claimed that no unlawful act had been committed. He claimed that banks every day act as purchasers for their depositors or customers.

He argued that all moneys deposited in a bank go into the general fund of the bank, and that therefore the indictments are defective in charging misuse of state funds obtained from the People's bank.

Shang Fand Sword Presented.

Peking, Nov. 29.—Considerable excitement prevails in Peking among the Manchou faction over the action of the empress dowager in bestowing upon Tsai Tai, Prince of Tuan, and Prince Tasi Lien, a sword called the "Shang Fand" sword, which carries with it the right to behead any person, regardless of rank or dignity, without first asking permission from the throne. This is to guard against sudden signs of treachery. Although the Shang Fand sword has been an institution of the country ever since the earliest Chinese history, it has only been bestowed once before during the present dynasty and then to General Shi Shang, who was appointed by the late Emperor Hsien Feng, special generalissimo of the imperial forces acting against the Tiping rebels.

Stuck in the Channel.

Savannah, Nov. 29.—The United States transport Chester, loaded with 1,500 men of the Fifteenth infantry, horses, mules, ammunition and supplies, left for Neuvas, Cuba. Four miles from the city they met the United States transport Manitoba coming in. The Manitoba did not slacken her speed nor move over in the channel, and in order to avoid a collision the Chester ran ashore. She is now stuck in the channel four miles below the city. It is believed she can be pulled off at high tide.

Will Arbitrate.

Cleveland, Nov. 29.—The case of James Corrigan against John D. Rockefeller, based on the claim of the Cleveland vessel owner that when he sold the Standard Oil magnate 2,500 Standard trust certificates the latter deceived him as to the real value, will be settled by arbitration. The three arbitrators selected are Judge William A. Lynch of Canton, Judge W. G. Choate and William D. Guthrie of New York. The hearing of testimony will begin in New York in January.

New Bankruptcy Rules.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The supreme court, through Justice Gray, announced the new bankruptcy rules, which it was authorized to frame and promulgate under the national bankrupt act. A number of courts declined to proceed with bankruptcy cases until the supreme court announced the new rules. The new rules will take effect on Monday, Jan. 2, 1899, and that all proceedings heretofore taken substantially in conformity to the act and to the regulations of 1867, as far as practicable, would be upheld.

To Connect the Forts.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—A series of new telegraph and telephone cables are to be laid at once in the bay by the government. One of the lines is to stretch between Fort Mason on the north side of the bay to Angel Island. Then one will be laid to Alcatraz. The presidio and Fort Baker are also to be connected.

Struck an Abutment.

Newcastle, Nov. 29.—The second-class protected cruiser Kalsigi, built by the Cramps for the Japanese government, and which left New York on Nov. 5 for this port to ship her Armstrong guns, has sustained considerable injury by colliding with a bridge abutment at this place.

Another Jersey Incorporation.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 29.—Articles of incorporation of the Otis Elevator company were filed with the secretary of state. The company has an authorized capital of $11,000,000.

WORK OF THE BLIZZARD

Myriads of Vessels Shattered on Atlantic Coast.

LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY

Late Reports Swell the List to Gigantic Proportions, and Growing Worse. Passenger Steamers Missing and Thought to Be Lost.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., Nov. 29.—The fierce northeast storm which struck this port with great violence swept out of existence a large fleet of sailing vessels which anchored off this port to escape its fury.

It is known that at least four men have perished and it is probable that as many more have lost their lives. Twenty-one schooners, nearly all heavily laden, and one barkentine, are ashore, four schooners now lying at anchor are totally dismantled, two others were sunk and one bark is resting on the bottom entirely submerged. Many other vessels were battered and partially stripped of their rigging.

Crew Lost.

Scituate, Mass., Nov. 29.—The big pilot boat Columbia of Boston is piled up on top of a wrecked cottage, broadside on, dismantled and a total wreck on the beach here. It is feared that all on board were lost. One body, that of a man apparently 30 years old, was found in the hold, but diligent search failed to show any others. She was in charge of Boat-keeper Henry Patterson, with a crew of three men before the mast and a steward.

Passenger Steamer Missing.

Boston, Nov. 29.—The managers of the Boston and Portland Steamship company stated that there are grave doubts as to the safety of the steamer Portland, which sailed from here Saturday night. Every harbor between here and Portland on the north shore has been heard from and one on the south shore, and in no case has the steamer been seen. She carried 65 passengers and a crew of 15 men.

Barge Ashore.

New York, Nov. 29.—Captain John Diase of the barge Independent, and Mate J. H. McLeod, a resident of Cleveland arrived at Riverhead, Long Island. They said that the Independent was ashore at Roanoke, five miles from Riverhead, and that they left three of the crew aboard.

Schooner Sunk.

New London, Conn., Nov. 29.—The schooner W. F. Dickinson, Captain Rodman, is sunk near Fort Trumbull and will probably be a total loss. The schooner Hattie P. Douglas, Captain Moxhy, is ashore near the Thames river bridge with a large hole stove in her bottom.

Ran Aground.

Belfast, Me., Nov. 29.—The schooner A. B. Perry, Captain Clifton, from Bangor for New York with 17,000 feet of lumber, dragged ashore near Northport camp ground during the night and will be a total loss. The vessel and her cargo were valued at $4,000. The crew escaped.

Crew Reported Lost.

Cohasset, Mass., Nov. 29.—The fishing schooner Gloriana is ashore in Cohasset harbor and will be a total loss. Her crew was saved. There are also two barges ashore outside the breakwater at Cohasset. The crew of one is reported to have perished.

Wrecked in the Storm.

Cohasset, Mass., Nov. 29.—The schooner Juniata of Boston, Captain Corey, was wrecked on Beach Island Sunday during the storm. Captain Corey and crew of 18 were rescued. The Juniata had a cargo of 14,000 pounds of fresh fish.

On the Rocks.

Marblehead, Mass., Nov. 29.—During the storm the coasting schooner J. C. Mahoney, bound from Bangor to Beverly, lumber laden, went ashore on the rocks near Naugus head and is a total wreck. The crew of four men made a landing.

That Fake Fight.

New York, Nov. 29.—Senator Sullivan reviewed the evidence introduced in the prize fight court of inquiry, and said: "It seems that McVey thought Corbett was being beaten and jumped into the ring to save him. No evidence to the contrary is forthcoming and the club directors have done all they could to set the matter right in the eyes of the public. As to the bets, we have nothing further to do with them." After it was over Corbett declared that Sharkey should give him another fight, and O'Rourke promised to give the Californian a chance.

Sudden Death.

Cape May, N. J., Nov. 29.—Jacob Beck, secretary of the National League of Musicians, was found dead in bed from heart disease.

For Kentucky—Rain in eastern, rain followed by fair in western portion; warmer; south winds.

JACKSON COUNTY, which two years ago gave over 1,200 Republican majority, gave only 220 this year. You can now see what the Republicans have been doing to the returns in the mountain counties. That they stole the State for McKinley is as certain as taxes.—Cynthia Democrat.

No wonder the Republicans are raising such a howl against the new election law.

It is now given out that General Fitzhugh Lee is not to command the first soldiers sent to Havana, but is to be sent elsewhere. Of course the administration is going to keep Lee in the background as long as possible. The excuse for sidetracking him now is a silly one, that the insurgents would likely prove so demonstrative if he were sent to Havana that they might cause trouble.

HON. JOHN C. WOOD, of Mt. Sterling, at present one of the State Railroad Commissioners and a prominent Republican, advises the defeated Republican candidates for Congress "to take their medicine like men," and make no contest. He says that in most cases the majorities were so pronounced that if a partisan Congress should take advantage of a legal technicality and make it an excuse for unseating their opponents, "we are well enough acquainted with the spirit of Kentuckians to know that the storm of indignation raised by such action would bury the Republicans in the State out of sight."

THE Government has spent a big sum of money constructing a pier at Mariano Beach, near Havana, for use in landing the troops to be sent to the latter place, and now it is found Mariano Bay is so shallow that the lightest draught yachts are forced to anchor far out, using a small boat for communication with the shore. The pier was built by the Cuban insurgents, each man receiving wages of $1.20 a day. It extends only a short distance into the bay, and at high tide has only four feet of water, showing that the structure was of haphazard planning. General Green pronounces it "a piece of gross folly." The administration will likely charge this up to the insurgents.

THE Democrats of Kentucky should hang their heads with shame for having enacted the Goebel law. Under this measure, the appointment of all election officers is lodged with a Democratic official. Care is taken in close contests to appoint Democratic election officers only, or alleged Republicans who will act with them. All disputed points are settled by those Democratic boards, and Republicans are practically without representation when the ballots are counted out and the returns made. Nor is this all. In strong Republican precincts, the complainant election officers can always be depended upon to violate some technicality of the law, by which the vote of the entire precinct can be thrown out.—Portsmouth Blade.

What the Blade doesn't know about the new election law is a whole lot. The editor of the Blade should not make such a public display of his ignorance.

It was not the re-creation of the American Navy that caused the establishment of nearly all of the present leading ship-building companies engaged in constructing American warships, but the requirement, rigorously insisted upon by former Secretary of the Navy Whitney, that sterling Democrat, that our new war ships should not only be designed in the United States, but that every portion of them should be constructed here, out of native materials. It was that requirement that gave confidence and courage to American capitalists to put the millions of dollars needed to properly equip a modern shipbuilding plant into American yards, and with the result that our war with Spain found us with a navy, even if not with a merchant marine, fully up to our needs.

THE net receipts from the bazar and concert at the Visitation Academy last week footed up the handsome sum of $1,118.97.

ROOSEVELT'S ROAST.

He Charges That Monstrous Blunders Have Been Proven,

And He Calls on the War Commission To Tell Who Profited From Traffic in Rations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The War Investigation Commission to-day completed the work in this city, and to-night left for Boston. At the afternoon session Captain Howell read a letter addressed to the commission by Robert J. Roosevelt, Secretary of the Committee of the Society for the Protection of Soldiers. It was received and filed. In part the letter read as follows:

"I have noticed in the morning press that one of your members criticises the witnesses who have testified at the request of the committee formed in this city to protect the soldiers, for the reason that, while establishing the fact that much groundless and inexcusable suffering was inflicted on the army, they do not fix the responsibility nor show who is to blame. If the views of your commission are correctly reported, there seems to be a misunderstanding between us. We supposed that all the witnesses had to do was to prove the facts, and that the commission would fix the responsibility—indeed, was appointed for the express purpose of fixing the responsibility.

"The heroic boys may forget their sufferings; may even refuse to testify to them, but their mothers will not and their fathers will not. Nor will it do to take refuge behind the errors of the Civil War.

"There was no intentional cruelty, such as seems to have so often prevailed in this war. The sick men were not starved; they were treated with all possible attention and kindness. Water was not sold to fever-racked sufferers at 10 cents a glass; food was not sold to starving men at 25 cents for a sandwich, and dainties for the dying men were not eaten by the officers. But suppose matters had been a thousand times worse in the Civil War; would that be any reason now that our men should be sent with arms out of date, that there should be no ambulances, no pack trains or transportation to carry food to the front; not half sufficient medicines, nor doctors; no proper hospital, and that men with freshly treated wounds should be left to lie in the mud on a blanket if they had one—without if they had none—nor even why mid-winter underclothing should be sent to Cuba and mid-summer gauze undershirts to Montana?

"The uncomplaining endurance of our men has simply been heroic. They bore wounds, sickness, privations, to death even, without a word. It was only neglect, starvation, in fact, and abuses in the hospitals which called forth letters, and those only home to their families; letters which were sent to me by broken-hearted mothers in pitiful appeals to try to help their sons. I wish your commission could have read them, but as many of them were transmitted to me confidentially I cannot even quote from them.

"The witnesses have established monstrous incapacity. That they have not full confidence in the power of your commission, no matter how good its will, to meet all the requirements the public demands of it is only echoing your own doubts, but in spite of that they seem to have done their share, and it would seem that it only remains for you to do your best even if that best is not quite satisfactory to yourselves. If done in good faith it will teach the soldiers that at least there is a power which was honestly endeavoring to do them justice.

"You can direct your inquiries in the first place to the food supply. Find out who gets the difference between the liberal rations allowed by the Government and the meager hard tack, bacon and green coffee served to the soldiers. The witnesses are the books and the rolls in the public departments, to which you have full access.

"We have furnished you the facts, shown you brutality, cruelty, neglect, indifference; how men whom the Government was under every obligation to protect and especially because they had a right to rely on such protection, were starved even in the land of plenty; were uncared for when sick, left without attention; when wounded were abused, maltreated—in some cases practically murdered. We have shown you an indifference and belittling of human sufferings which continue even now. If this nation is to become a war-like one, if we are to have an army which shall be efficient and to be relied upon, these crimes and blunders must be corrected, and your commission must correct them. It is not for you to make the feeble excuse that our committee, a mere voluntary association with no legal existence even, shall shoulder this responsibility."

THE protracted meeting conducted at Shelbyville Christian Church by Elder Collis, of Lexington, closed with six additions.

MR. HORACE G. HOLLIDAY, Storekeeper-gauger, has been assigned to Merritt Bros.' distillery in Clark County for December.

JIM JONES, colored, aged thirty-three years, died last night at his home on East Fourth street, of consumption. He had been ill five months and confined to his bed for three weeks.

THE Court of Appeals has granted fifteen days further time to file petitions for rehearing in the cases of the Fidelity Deposit Company vs. Commonwealth, &c., Bracken, and C. and O. Railway Company vs. Dixon's administrator, Boyd.

At the recent revival held by the Rev. Sam. M. Bernard, Jr., in Ford, Ky., there were forty-eight additions, and at his previous meeting there were eighty-three additions, making a total of 131. As Ford is a town of less than 600, these meetings almost exhausted the materials for a revival.

W. H. COULTON, of Jackson County, has announced himself as a Republican candidate for Railroad Commissioner in this district. There are now three Republican candidates for this position. Mr. John A. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, who is the present Commissioner, J. K. Dixon, of Johnson County, and W. H. Coulton, of Jackson.

THE citizens of Cincinnati have raised a subscription to the amount of $6,000 to place a memorial tablet on the water tower at Ft. Thomas, containing the names of the members of the gallant Sixth regiment who died at Santiago either from disease or gunshot wounds. Bracken County will furnish one name, that of John J. Pepper.

COLLECTOR ROBERTS has made the following assignments at this place for December: Storekeeper-gaugers—J. S. Wallingford at the H. E. Pogue Distilling Company, W. L. Yellman at Poyntz Bros. and O. B. Heady at J. H. Rogers & Co. Mr. F. D. Clark is assigned as Gauger at H. E. Pogue, J. W. Watson & Co. and O. H. P. Thomas, rectifiers.

THE statement of the Louisville and Nashville road for the third week in November shows a handsome increase in earnings. For the third week in November, 1898, they were $485,835, against $425,590 last year, an increase of $60,295. The total for the three weeks of November is $1,413,130, against $1,268,485 last year, an increase of $179,645. The earnings from July 1st to the latest date this year have been $9,163,304, against $8,575,372 last year, an increase of $587,932.

MR. S. R. WALKER's one-and-a-half story dwelling between Orangeburg and Mt. Gilead was destroyed by fire Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. The fire started while the family were at breakfast, and the roof and upper portion was in flames when the blaze was discovered. The family did not succeed in saving any of their household goods. The property was insured for $300 in the Farmers' Home Mutual of Mason County. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are close to seventy-five years old, and the loss is a serious one to them.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

"Hercules" brand, so called on account of great wearing strength. These Stockings have the quality that gives proper warmth and service and the shaping that gives the proper fit. Hard to quote prices intelligently because of variations caused by wide difference in sizes. These by way of suggestion: Children's Black Ribbed Cotton Hose, all sizes, at 10c. and 15c. a pair. Another grade at 20c. or 25c., by size. Full fashioned hose, shaped to fit, 25c. to 35c., according to size, up to the finest at 50c.

FEDORA GLOVES.—A dollar sounds cheap for Kid Gloves—it is cheap. But whoever thinks of Fedora Gloves as cheap? They can only be compared to Gloves at a dollar and a half—so good are they. Black, white and colors.

COMFORTS.—Are you going to make comforts? Yes! Well, we have everything you need—an especially good brand of cotton batting and some entirely new designs in Comfort coverings. Made Comforts, too, in a wide range.

DRESS GOODS.—"Plain" we call them, yet vast care is required in the making—their smooth surface can disguise no defects of wool, weave or finish. This hint of varieties gathered to meet the broad demand: Satin Solid, 30c.; Venetian Coverts, 50c.; Corkcrews, 75c.; Armures, 75c.

CHILDREN'S REEFERS.—An attractive line in all wool mixtures and fancy boucles. These pretty garments have new spanlette effects, daintily trimmed with Soutache braid and fancy cords—$3.50 to $5.00.

Sixteen Lives Paid For the Publication of
 This Editorial at Wilmington,
 N. C.

[From Wilmington, N. C. Record, the organ of the colored population of that city.]

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors, and then complain because they are taken away.

"Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct towards them, and our experience among the poor white people in the country teaches that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time, until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness brings attention to them, and the man is lynched.

"Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not black and burly, but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

A LASTING LESSON.

A Striking Illustration Which Adorns a
 Card Over a Merchant's Desk.

[Exchange.]

Entering the office of a well-known merchant, I lifted my eyes and found myself confronted with the most thrilling temperance lecture I ever steered myself against in the whole course of my life. It was an inscription marked with a pen on the back of a postal card nailed to the desk. The inscription read as follows:

Which?
 Wife or Whisky?
 The Babes or the Bottles?
 Home or Hell?

"Where did you get that and what did you nail it up there for?" I asked the merchant.

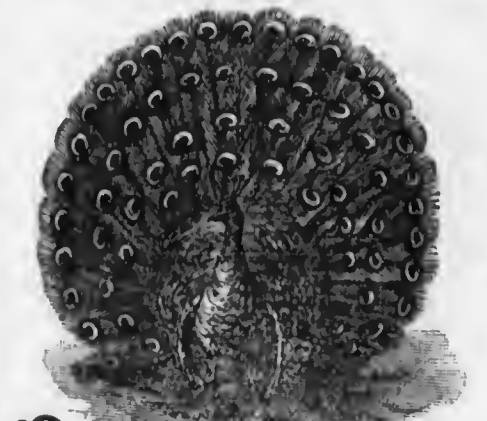

"I wrote that myself and nailed it up there," was his reply, "and I will tell you the story of that card. Sometime ago I found myself falling into a drinking habit. I would run out once in awhile with a visiting customer or at the invitation of a traveling man, or upon every slight occasion that offered.

"I soon found that my business faculties were becoming dulled, and my stomach was continually out of sorts, my appetite failing, and a constant craving for alcoholic stimulants becoming dominant. I saw tears in the eyes of my wife, wonder depicted on the faces of my children, and then took a long look ahead.

"One day I sat down at this desk and half unconsciously wrote the inscription on that card. On looking at it upon its completion, its awful revelation burst upon me like a flash. I nailed it up there, and read it over a hundred times that afternoon. That night I went home sober and have not touched a drop of intoxicating liquor since. You see how startling is its alliteration.

"Now I have no literary proclivities, and I regard that card as an inspiration. It speaks out three solemn warnings every time I look at it.

ANOTHER HOME SADDENED.

Death Claims Mrs. Mary Porter Warder Thompson on the Fifteenth Anniversary of Her Marriage.

Died, at her home at Fairview, Fleming County, on Sunday morning, November 27th, at 2 o'clock, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Mary Porter Warder, wife of Mr. A. W. Thompson.

It's a peculiarly sad coincidence that Mrs. Thompson's death occurred on the fifteenth anniversary of her marriage.

Deceased had been ill four or five weeks with this fever that has claimed so many victims in that section this fall.

Her husband survives and she leaves four little children, two sons and two daughters, the youngest nine months old. She was a sister of Mr. Russell Warder, of this city, and Mr. Hugh Warder, of Helena, and was about thirty-five years of age. Deceased formerly resided at Mayslick and also at Sardis for a time, and was a woman of lovely character with a host of friends in this city and county who sincerely sympathize with the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

The funeral was held at the Mayslick Baptist Church Monday, Rev. H. H. Hibbs, a former pastor, officiating. Burial at Mayslick cemetery.

The three Owensboro officers who killed Howard Clark and Mattie Belle Mahoney in Indiana a few weeks ago are having difficulty in collecting the $650 reward for Clark. Auditor Stone declines to pay the $150 offered by the State, claiming it does not apply to peace officers. Louisville officers claim the $400 offered by that city is non-enforceable. There is a small reward claimed to be due on the guarantee of Louisville private citizens. The Owensboro officers say they will sue for the full amount claimed.

EDWARD AUSTIN, who died last week in Boston, left more than $1,000,000 to charity and to educational institutions: To the New England Trust Company, $1,000,000 in trust; the income to be paid "to needy aged men and women who had been in better circumstances in early life, but had become in want in old age." To Harvard College, $500,000, the interest to be applied to "needy, meritorious students and teachers to assist them in the pursuit of their studies." To the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, $400,000; to Radcliffe College, $30,000; to Roanoke College, $30,000; to Tuskegee Normal and Industrial School, $30,000; to the bacteriological laboratory of the Harvard Medical School, $10,000.

The steamboat Kate Adams, recently completed, is a novelty in river boat building, as she is constructed on the lines of an ocean vessel. She has an entire steel hull throughout. The compartments in the hull are completely airtight. The greatest innovation is apartments below the water line, in which the crew will sleep. This space in other boats is usually unused. The steamboat is lighted and heated on the most modern plan, and is as expensive a boat as plies the river. She will run in the Mississippi from Memphis to Arkansas City.

APPELLATE COURT'S OPINION.

Syllabus of Judge Burnam's Decision Reversing the Kenton Circuit Court in the Gooding Divorce Suit.

In reversing the judgment of the Kenton Circuit Court in above case Judge Burnam, of the Appellate Court, said in part:

"There has been no fixed rule laid down in this State for determining the amount of alimony which should be allowed, but it seems plain, from the agreed facts as to appellant's financial condition, that if he is compelled to pay the cost of this proceeding and $75 per month alimony, and for the maintenance of the infant, in addition to his other pecuniary burdens, he will have nothing left from his income for his own support or that of others dependent upon him, and that he will soon be a bankrupt. The allowance made is excessive. It would be better for both appellant and appellee if a lump sum could be awarded to appellee in full settlement of her claim for alimony. Appellant would then know precisely what he had to pay, and appellee would be relieved from the financial vicissitudes which are likely to overtake appellant. But in the entire absence of proof as to appellee's age and expectation of life, such a sum can not be intelligently determined. For the present the allowance to her should be fixed at $325, and the additional sum of $175 per annum, to be paid quarterly, for maintenance and education of the infant, and final judgment should reserve the right to change or alter these amounts as the future situation of the parties and their interests require."

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Situation About Same as to Old Burley. Prices Not Very Satisfactory as a Rule.

[Furnished by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.]

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,363 hhds., with receipts for the same period 930 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 94,161 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1897 on our market to this date amount to 75,879 hhds.

We offered 498 hhds. of new burley last week, most of it being common to medium. Prices for the grades selling below $7.50 seemed satisfactory to sellers. They were not so well pleased with the grades selling between $9 and $11.75. The situation is very much the same in old burley, everything below $8 being satisfactory to sellers. The grades selling between 10 and 14 cents did not bring as much as owners thought they should. Stocks of old burley in our market are very small and we cannot help thinking the good, useful old sweet leaf is bound to bring more money in the near future.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1897) crop:

WHEN any part of the body isn't doing the work that nature intended it to do, it puts the whole system out of tune—out of harmony. Sickness in one part of the body is likely to run into all parts of the body. When children stand a row of bricks on end, they knock the whole row down by upsetting one brick. That is exactly what happens to the health when the bowels fail to perform their proper functions. Constipation makes trouble all along the line—puts the liver out of order, is bad for the kidneys—bad for the stomach. It holds in the body poisonous matter, and because it cannot go any place else, it gets into the blood. The blood carries it all over the system. That makes sluggishness, lassitude, bad breath and foul taste in the mouth, fills the stomach with gas and causes windy belching, stops digestion in the stomach, causes sour stomach, heartburn and headache. You can avoid all such trouble, for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its attendant evils. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his "Medical Adviser." It is a book of 108 pages, profusely illustrated.

STANDING ARMY.

Senator Hanna Favors an Increase to One Hundred Thousand Men.

Cleveland, Nov. 29.—Colonel Charles F. Dick, secretary of the National Republican committee, and Congressman-elect from the Nineteenth Ohio district, arrived here and held a conference with Senator Hanna concerning preliminary plans for the national campaign of 1900.

Speaking of the more important measures to be discussed in the coming session of congress, Senator Hanna said the Nicaraguan canal matter would certainly be taken up. "This is one of the most important measures in the senate at present," said Mr. Hanna. "and I am sure it will be taken up early. The establishment of a government in the Hawaiian islands will be disposed of. The treaty of peace with Spain will also be discussed and disposed of early."

Asked if he favored increasing the standing army, Mr. Hanna said: "I do. I think the army should be increased to 100,000. I believe this matter will be discussed at the short term."

Emperor and Dreyfus Case.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—It is learned from an authoritative source that Colonel Schwartzkoppen, the former German military attaché at Paris, while supplying with Emperor William at Potsdam, detailed the whole of the inside history of the Dreyfus, Esterhazy and Picquart cases to his majesty, who contemplates taking some action in the matter. The chief of the emperor's military cabinet will be summoned to Potsdam this week to discuss the advisability of an official German pronouncement on the subject.

Bank Quits.

Corning, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The Bank of Horrellsville, of which ex-State Forestry Commissioner F. G. Babcock is president, failed to open its doors for business, and posted a notice to the effect that the bank had gone into voluntary liquidation with the approval of State Bank Superintendent Kilburne. The notice also announced that creditors would be paid dollar for dollar as soon as financial matters could be arranged.

Ohio Kidnaping Case.

Washington, Nov. 29.—No application for writ of habeas corpus in the Magowan case was presented to the supreme court. A lawyer named Scott was here last week in Mr. Magowan's behalf and had a talk with ex-Attorney General Garland regarding application for a writ, but the latter took no steps, awaiting more definite advice from Mr. Scott.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 29.—The opening day of Woodard & Shanklin's annual thoroughbred sale was a success in all respects. Bidding was lively and prices considered good. Ninety-four yearlings sold for $10,225, an average of $108.

SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—
